News from the Silver Bug:

Total global silver demand is expected to reach an all-time high of 1.112 billion ounces in 2022 driven mainly by record silver industrial fabrication, forecast to grow by 5% as silver's use expands in both traditional and critical green technologies, according to data from the Silver Institute in Washington DC.

Total global silver supply is projected to rise by 7% to 1.092 billion ounces in 2022, mainly from mine production, which is forecast to grow 7% to a six year high this year. After shifting to a market deficit in 2021 for the first time in six years, the silver market is expected to record a supply shortfall of 20 million ounces this year. Silver recycling should be more modest in 2022, with volumes likely to advance by 3%, with the rise entirely due to higher industrial recycling.

Coin Award:

A US silver bullion coin commemorating the woman's suffrage movement won first place in the 2022 Coin of the Year's "Most Historically Significant Coin" category.

The one-dollar, .999 silver coin celebrates the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment, which stated: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex."

The obverse (heads) design shows profiles of three women, each wearing a hat to symbolize the styles worn during decades of the suffrage movement. The woman in the foreground of the coin is wearing a hat with the year 2020, the year that the 19th Amendment was ratified by Congress. The reverse (tails) design shows "2020" being dropped into a ballot box inscribed with "VOTES FOR WOMEN" on the box.

The 400,000 - mintage coin is sold out from the US Mint, but is available on the secondary market for approximately 100.00 US dollars.

The Coin of the Year awards program is an internationally conducted competition sponsored by World Coin News.

Joke of the month

Are overworked coin makers at the Royal Mint the only people who are likely to strike because they want to make less money?
